DON'T FURNISH YOUR HOME ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

Take your time about it when you are selecting an outfit for that new home of yours. Hasty buying may lead to vain regrets even when you select from such a perfect stock as ours—because you might buy something you would not need. Try our suggestion. Here it is:—Come to our new six story store home and pick out what you THINK you will want. Have us lay it aside until the new home is ready for you to occupy. Maybe you won't want the goods delivered for a month or two.

In the meantime you may find you have left something off your list or put something on that you won't need. All you have to do is to let us know and we'll make the change cheerfully and with a smile.

Of course we don't charge extra for this; it is merely another way of proving that we want to do the best we can for you—for that's the way we have built up our business year after year until a large new store became necessary.

If it isn't convenient to pay cash, don't worry about it; pay us as you please; you will find we are easy to deal with; plain human beings and not grasping.

R.M. Hunt & Co.

A Remarkable Offering of Men's Shirts at $1.00

We place on sale today a really remarkable collection of Men's Negligee Shirts to be sold at $1.00 each.

When the advance samples came in we showed them to a manufacturer of shirts who happened to be in the store at the time and told him we were going to sell them at $1.00. He said, "You are foolish, for I can sell them at wholesale for $1.50 a dozen." Judging by market values we knew that what he said was true.

To further establish our position as to price we have had all of the leading stores in town searched through to see what was the nearest approach in value and according to the judgment of the shopper there was nothing as good anywhere at $1.50.

The shirts are made of excellent madras in blue, tan and gray, dark also, neat, black and white effects, either attached or detached cuffs, beautifully laundered and perfectly constructed. The collection is as remarkable as the price.
